PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE (Dr. ANDREW K. K. IP)

In past year, there were a few issues, which had immense influence on the future of primary health care and our College. In October 2007, Chief Executive, the Honourable Donald Tsang released his Policy Address. Government will launch a trial scheme under which all citizens aged 70 or above will be given annually five health care vouchers worth $50 each to subsidize primary medical care services from the private sector. The scheme was intended to enable the elderly to choose more freely various primary medical care services and to encourage the elderly to make good use of primary medical care services and establish a "continuum of care" relationship with family doctors. The Voucher is expected to launch by the end of 2008. The voucher system is a direct provision of funds to private market. Certain form of requirements, including CME requirements, would be inevitable in order to be accountable to the tax payers. Our College would take this opportunity to extend our CME/CPD program to primary care doctors in the community.

In December 2007, Hong Kong Economic Journal published an article written by Mr. Lam Si Wah on the reasons of young family medicine trainees leaving their training. The article quoted the comments from Professor Richard Yu that there were problems with our training and training program; the trainees were not happy; and the passing rates of our examinations were low. It is the objective of our college to establish and maintain high standards of practice, skill and conduct in family medicine. Our college shall encourage and assist any persons to arrange, take part in, undergo, undertake and carry out training courses in relation to family medicine. To improve our training program, an ad hoc committee has been established. The committee is going to collect opinion from stalk holders and experts in education field. A training framework would be laid down after the process of consultation.

In March 2008, Food and Health Bureau released the Consultation Document on Health Care Reform 'Your Health Your life'. Dr. York Chow, Secretary for Food and Health proposed to enhance primary care system; to promote greater public-private partner ship and to develop a territory-wide electronic health record system as the infrastructure for these reforms. Primary healthcare is referred to be the base upon which the rest of the healthcare system is organized. There is little doubt that enhanced primary care can reduce the demand for expensive, specialist-led hospital care; reduce healthcare cost and increasing the efficiency of healthcare system. The way to strengthen primary care is to provide training and incentive for training to doctors, who are providing or are going to provide primary health care. To reduce demand for hospital care, training of effective consultation, evidence-based health promotion and office procedures would be salient. Continuous professional development and clinical audits, particularly investigation and referral rates are indispensable.

In response to the consultation paper, our College proposed to establish a primary healthcare body to ensure quality of primary health care system. We emphasized that a primary care diagnostic classification is essential for the proposed territory-wide electronic health record. We also mentioned the importance of adequate provision of funding for the training of both non-family medicine primary care doctors and family physicians.

Family medicine is at the cross road to change. In the past, structural training was mainly provided to new graduates by Hospital Authority. Doctors, who have started their practice in the community, are difficult to join the existing training program. In future, our College shall take a flexible and inclusive approach so that any primary care doctors would be able to join our training program and be possible to attain the level of specialist in family medicine. It is also the time to reconsider the duration of our training program. A six year training program may not be the best for our health care system. The Government has committed to enhance primary health care. Our College, as a body to promote and to set standards in quality primary medical care, shall play a pivotal role in the coming health care reform.

Within the College, there are different categories of members, academy fellow, college fellow, members and associate members. Certainly, there are differences in opinion and interest. With a flexible and inclusive approach, I hope very much that more members would attend the level of college fellow or academy fellow. In the past two years, I had received criticisms and comments from members and advocates in family medicine. I trust these criticisms and comments are words of encouragement to improve. At the last year of my term of presidency, I would like to take this opportunity to express my most sincere thank to all members and advocates in family medicine for their continuing encouragements and compliments.

HONORARY SECRETARY'S MESSAGE (Dr. EDMUND W. W. LAM)

This year started by concluding the 30th anniversary activities of the our College in the anniversary dinner in January. The commemorative publication "Strengthening Primary Health Care for All: The First 30 Years of HKCFP" was first presented at the dinner and was later provided to all members. Dr. Andrew Ip led College into his second year of presidency.

The Food and Health Bureau released the "Your Health Your Life" Consultation Document on the Healthcare Reform for our Health Care System in March 2008. Questionnaires were sent out to all members to collect opinions. An ad hoc Committee was formed and a formal response was sent to Bureau on behalf of the College and members in June 2008.

Internationally, Dr. Andrew Ip led a delegation to attend a train-the-trainer's workshop in Ho Chi Ming City in Vietnam in June. Valuable experiences in training were exchanged and a cross-country research network was also initiated. In July, Dr. Donald Li led another delegation to attend the 4 party (Mainland, Taiwan, HK and Macau) exchange meeting in Taipei and Prof Cindy LK Lam gave a presentation on training in Family Medicine.

As the organizer of the WONCA APR Conference 2009, 2008 would be a definitely busy year for the host organizing committee. A big delegation would attend the WONCA APR Conference 2008 Melbourne. Many delegates would make presentations and it would be a wonderful learning experience and a valuable opportunity to promote the WONCA APR Conference 2009.

The total number of basic trainees and higher trainees are 230 and 86 respectively, amongst them are 26 newly enrolled trainees. The Board of Vocational Training and Standards planned to revise the training programme to meet the changing needs and a training forum was held in August with the input of academic Colleges of other Specialties and different stakeholders of our health care system.

The 21st Conjoint HKCFP/RACGP fellowship examination was carried out smoothly, with 106 candidates sat for the Written Segments and 79 candidates sat for the Clinical Segments. New security measures were implemented. For the 2008 Exit Examination held in Spring, there were 40 candidates, while there were 15 candidates sat for the 2007 supplementary Exit Examination in September 2007. In the 21st Fellowship Conferment Ceremony held in May 2008, there were 26 members conferred for Fellowships of our College and the Royal Australian College of General Practitioners (RACGP), and 16 members awarded the Certificate of Exit Examination.

Board of Education was as busy as usual and new certificate courses in Sports Medicine, Urology and Chronic Obstructive Airway Disease were introduced to meet the needs of different doctors and to depth to our already very diversified educational activities. Three clinical attachment programmes-Diabetes, Ear, Nose and Throat, and Orthopaedics and Traumatology, were successfully held. The five interest groups have continued to mature and doctors with different special interests could share, interact and learn together regularly and there were plans to conduct primary care research projects. Our Annual Scientific Meeting, themed 'Family Physicians and Our Community' was held in May 2008. Awards were presented to promote the culture for research. The 26th Annual Refresher course was again well-received by members.

For our 5th Diploma Course in Family Medicine (DFM), 30 doctors completed the course and were awarded the certificate in 2008. This year, to make the course more relevant to the local context, new modules written by a team of local doctors were introduced.

Since January, the Hong Kong Practitioner had changed to become a quarterly publication, while Family Physician Links remained to be released monthly. A survey was conducted to collect feedbacks and comments from readers, with the aim to generate information for the planning of the journal.

There were 2 winners for the 2008 HKCFP Research Fellowship. The study - 'What sort of Primary Healthcare Service does the Public want?' conducted by the Research Committee was released in HK Practitioner in March.

The Quality Assurance and Accreditation Committee continued document the Quality Assurance programmes of our College, which were reciprocally recognized by the RACGP.

The Public Education Committee was busy publishing articles regularly in Hong Kong Economic Journal (信報), Ming Pao (明報) and We Care Magazine (關心). Following the success of the book 家庭醫學手冊 - 伴我同行 published in 2007, the second book 家庭醫學手冊之二 - 家庭醫生 collecting articles in our columns was released in July 2008. Besides, newspaper and radio interviews were made to augment the impact of public education.

The Web and Computer Committee was busy working on reconstructing the new College Website.

Professional Performance Committee continued to provide advice on professional performance to doctors instructed by the Medical Council of Hong Kong to have peer review and supervision.

The College's membership grew steadily, now reaching 1661, with the number of College Fellows going up to 441. The College's financial status remained sound and healthy.

I would like to thank the dedicated Secretariat team and in particular the Executive Manager, Erica So for their hard work all through.

Security

Stronger emphasis had been put into the security measures this year. Several measures had been taken, including:

1. A revised working protocol for staff handling examination materials
2. Repeated appeal of professional integrity to all involved in running the exam.
3. Setting up a new Case-Writing group, consisting of twelve examiners, responsible for the development and writing-up of OSCE cases scenarios, case discussions, revisions, fine tuning, and finalization, as well as setting of standards and the final marking schemes.
4. Presentation of OSCE exam materials to examiners one-and-a-quarter of an hour before the actual exam.
5. Careful "quarantine" of candidates during the clinical exam sessions.

Quality Assurance

Quality assurance of our examination was maintained by the large number of experienced local examiners in our panel. Paired examiners in each station during clinical exam also helped to improve its validity. CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

The DFM course entered her sixth year in 2008 and continued to offer an effective and practical way to acquire knowledge, attitude and skills of family medicine. The Board hoped more primary care doctors would enhance their knowledge in family medicine, so that a better and more efficient primary care could be delivered to the community.

This year marked a new milestone. As mentioned in the last Report, the Board would conduct this course with new Distance Modules I and II written by Dr Wun Yuk Tsan and his team. These new modules would replace those offered by The Department of General Practice, Monash University. After running the course for the past five years, the Board gained valuable experience and decided to implement the new modules which, hopefully, would cater for new learning needs and relevance to local family medicine practice. Nonetheless, the Board was grateful to Professor Leon Piterman and Professor Neil Spike for their advice and support over the last five years and for sharing their valuable experience in teaching. In this respect the Board held a dinner to thank them on May 4, 2008 after the DFM Examination. Professor Leon Piterman, Professor Neil Spike, Professor George Zaharias, Professor Les Segal, Dr. Donald Li, Dr. Stephen Foo, Dr. Wun Yuk Tsan, Dr. Gene Tsoi, Dr. Au Chi Lap, Dr. Mary Kwong and myself were present. The dinner was memorable. We exchanged experience in family medicine teaching. Dr. Donald Li represented the College and Board to present souvenirs to the guests.

Thirty candidates fulfilled all the requirements of DFM Course and passed the Final Examination in 2008. I would like to take this opportunity to thank Professor Michael Kidd, Discipline of General Practice, The University of Sydney, for being our External Examiner again. He was impressed and satisfied with high standard of the DFM Examination and Assessment. The Board was grateful for his valuable supervision and advice.

Lastly, on behalf of the College and the Board, I wished to thank Dr. Wun for writing and supervising the new modules, all the Board members, lecturers, speakers, examiners, tutors and mentors of the DFM course who contributed their time and efforts to make the course successful. I also wished to thank the secretarial staff Ms Charlotte Sham, Ms Winnie Lee and Ms Carmen Cheng for their hard-working.

These viewing sessions are open only to our members. 1 CME point, HKCFP or MCHK, is accredited to one who attends the viewing session. Up to a maximum of 2 CPD points may be accredited to one who submits a satisfactory report of Professional Development Log. It is encouraging that the number of attendance is increasing. Members who are actively participating in writing up local management protocols of common diseases can also earn extra CPD points. Well-written synopses will be published in our College Journal 'The Hong Kong Practitioner' to give credit to the excellent work of some small discussion groups. However, synopses not up to standard are requested to be re-written again.

Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) Training

The Board would like to thank the Hong Kong College of Cardiology, especially Dr. Cheng Chun Ho and Dr. Pun Chiu On for their continuous support. Our CPR training workshops and examinations were running successfully and the instructor workshops for up-keeping standards and recruiting new instructors were well organized. We held two CPR training workshops from March, 2007 to April, 2008. We have 124 members passed the CPR Examination and were awarded the Certificate of Competency CPR in Basic Life Support this year.

The clinical attachments are aimed at in-depth and structural teaching of our members in the specialty they are interested in.

Assessment Enhancement Course

Assessment Enhancement Course remained a very popular course in her eighth year of establishment. I would like to thank all the tutors in contributing their time and effort in this course. They help tremendously in upgrading the standard on family medicine in the consultation skills, physical examination and other various aspects. These are very useful to members preparing the coming Conjoint Fellowship Examination.

Annual Refresher Course

Annual Refresher Course has been the traditional major year-end event for 27 years. This year, we had 6 lectures and 3 workshops and were attended by over 250 members. Professional Development Subcommittee

Since 2005, five Interest Groups have been formed under this Subcommittee: namely Dermatology, Geriatric, Medico-legal, Mental Health, and Neuro-musculoskeletal.

Our Interest Groups provide a platform for all members of our College in public and private sectors to meet and exchange their experience. Interested members are encouraged to participate, presenting their cases or problems for discussions or role-play for sharing. Sharing experience is an important mode of gaining knowledge. Both the experienced and less experienced doctors can benefit from the participation.

Sharing problem cases with specialists or expertise will provide peer support, skill-mix and bridging the professional gap. This will upgrade our standard, to raise our morale, and increase our job satisfaction. This will also promote early awareness, clinical governance and risk management in respect to different medical fields, to assure a better management and a high-quality health care for the public.

The Interest Group in Dementia and Geriatric had organized an Update on common Geriatric Diseases, which was held on 13th May 2007 and was well attended.

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

The Board has been busy this year with the usual activities of the various subcommittees. Two new secretaries, Carmen and Koi, have joined BVTS early this year. They have worked very hard to pick up the new post quickly to serve the Board and our trainees recurring issues.

The Trainer's subcommittee has successfully completed the first training course for Family Medicine clinical supervisors, thanks to all subcommittee members and especially Chairlady Dr. Law Tung Chi whom has co-ordinated the whole course all the way. Much of the credit should go to Dr. Law for her excellent plan and whole-hearted involvement.

This is the first year that BVTS has established a sponsorship exclusively for active trainees to attend overseas conference. Three trainees attended a conference in Taiwan in July with delegates coming from China and Macau. They have participated together with our College delegates at the conference, and submitted a written post-meeting report to the Board. I hope they have learnt and enjoyed the experience. Three other trainees were sponsored to attend the WONCA conference and RACGP's Annual Scientific Meeting in Melbourne October 2008. Two of them have been accepted to give a mini-oral presentation at the conference and one with a poster presentation. This is actually more significant in terms of active participation in postgraduate educational activities. I hope it will serve as good example and motivation to other trainees to involve in similar activities both locally and internationally. Our College will host the Regional WONCA Conference 2009 here in Hong Kong!!!

The usual statistics up to 31st March 2008 are as follows:

New enrolled Basic trainees	:	20
New enrolled Higher trainees	:	23
Total Basic trainees	:	241
Total Higher trainees	:	86

All Board members and subcommittee members have to share the various responsibilities of BVTS such as checking new applications for enrollment and accreditation, checking trainees' logbooks for completion of training, travelling to various training centres for accreditation, reviewing the Structural Education Programmes for pre-approval, distribution of logbooks in person to new trainees etc. All these time-consuming and sometimes tedious activities are ongoing all through the year. Many members may not be aware of the contributions of this group of silent workers and the importance of these activities to the standard of vocational training.

Our Board meetings decide on all matters in relation to vocational training based on existing rules and regulations which are long established. All decisions are made after thorough discussions and minuted down for future reference. All regulations are set to prevent personal favouritism and are meant to be abided by everyone. I hope the Board will always hold a firm stand on the principle.

Output

Congratulations to our trainees for passing the HKCFP/RACGP Conjoint Examination in 2007 and for being elected Fellows of the Hong Kong College of Family Physicians and the Royal Australian College of General Practitioners.

Appreciation

I welcome the new members to join the various subcommittees of the Board. Thanks to all Board members who attended the Board meetings and contributed their time and wisdom to the Board's functions. The contributions from our colleagues in various hospital specialties looking after our FM trainees are most appreciated. I have to thank all FM clinical supervisors for their dedication to our vocational training programme.

I must thank Dr. Stephen Foo for his long service to this Board, who retired from our Board to become Censor of the College. I also thank Dr. John Chung, our Immediate Past President, for his staunch support to this Board, regrettably resigned for personal reason.

Lastly, our Secretariat as a team have been helpful to carry out the Board's various activities, their effort is highly appreciated.

Since January 2008, the Hong Kong Practitioner has changed from a monthly publication to a quarterly publication. This year, 48 manuscripts were published. Among the published manuscripts, 35% were original research articles, 19% were discussion papers and 15% were update articles. The rest were editorials (21%), case reports (2%), commentaries (2%) and letters to the editor (6%). Among the topics of the original research articles, 62% of the manuscripts were related to topics in health service research, 23% were related to clinical medicine and 15% were related to education and training.

Dr. Samuel Wong has taken over the editorship from Dr. Eileen Tse since January, 2008. Dr. Wendy Tsui continued to lead a team of young members to publish the FP Links, which has provided members with up-to-date information on College events.

This year, a reader's survey was conducted to collect feedback and readers' preference for the content of the journal. Information from the survey will assist the editorial team in the future planning and direction of the Journal in the coming year.

CHAIRLADY'S MESSAGE

The theme of the Annual Scientific Meeting 2008 (ASM) was chosen as "Family Physicians and Our Community". Our College members have been looking after people's health, providing health education and promotion in the community of Hong Kong over the years. The role of family physicians is much more than being soloists, but also in collaboration with other health care professional colleagues.

Plenary Sessions with topics related to our theme were arranged, inclusive of "Quality drug Management", "Family Physicians and the Elderly Community", "Family Health Nursing" and "Infectious Disease". Two useful workshops on Parenting and the Leicester Assessment Package (LAP) were organized. Three awards- "Best Paper", "Best Research" and "Best Innovation" were presented to chosen submitted papers. A seminar session on the topic of diabetes care was also conducted. The ASM 2008 had served as a platform for all participants to share their knowledge, skills, experience and values.

EDUCATION COMMITTEE (AM AFFAIRS)

Dr. Angus M. W. Chan

The Education Committee (EC) is one of the statutory committees of the Hong Kong Academy of Medicine. It holds regular monthly meeting at the Academy chaired by Dr C.T.Hung, Vice President, HKAM. The committee is made up of representatives from all individual Colleges to discuss and endorse various issues related to education and training of AM Fellows and trainees.

The following is a summary of some important issues related to fellows and members of our College.

1. It was agreed that for the CME/CPD cycle starting from January 2008, the "passive" CME points allowed for a cycle will be capped at 75. It was also agreed in principle that for the CME/CPD cycle starting January 2011, Fellows would be strongly encouraged to (a) maintain a balanced CME/CPD profile with a mix of different activities, including 5 points in a cycle from activities in quality assurance audits and activities for improvement of patient care; and (b) increase further the CME/CPD points gained from activities other than passive participation through decreasing the proportion of passive participation CME/CPD activities.
2. HKCFP QA Programme is to be de-linked from MCHK Programme.
3. Doctor Work Reform (DWR) Working Group is reactivate to monitor and study if there is any negative impact of DWR on training.
4. Assessment guidelines for application of Certificate of Specialist Registration (CSR) are adopted. This is a route for doctors with comparable training to apply for Specialist status. Our College has recommended one member for CSR and endorsed by EC in June 2008.

EXTERNAL AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

A delegation from HKCFP led by Dr. Andrew Ip our president attended a train the trainer's workshop in Ho Chi Ming City in Vietnam in June 2008 organized by Dr. Donald Li WONCA APR President. There was valuable exchange of training experience. A research network was also initiated by WONCA past President Prof. Goh Lee Gan and our College affirmed her support and participation. Representatives from Hong Kong also joined Dr. Li as WONCA APR President paying a courtesy visit to meet the Vice Minister of Health of Vietnam Prof Madam Tien in Hanoi. Family Medicine training and development was promoted.

In July Dr. Donald Li led a delegation to Taiwan to attend a cross straits 4 party academic exchange meeting. Prof. Cindy Lam made a presentation on training and Dr. Donald Li was the chairman of the meeting. The 4 parties: namely mainland, Hong Kong, Taiwan and Macau agreed to keep the 4 party meetings and exchanges a regular event.

In October a big delegation from Hong Kong attended the WONCA APR regional conference organized by the Royal Australian College of General Practitioners. Many delegates made presentations. As this was also the annual scientific meeting of RACGP, a lot of knowledge and experience was gained by those who participated. A booth was also set up in the exhibition area to promote the WONCA Asia Pacific Regional conference to be held in Hong Kong in 2009. Members of HOC attended a dinner hosted by the president WONCA APR Dr. Donald Li and the council and lobbied those present to come to the WONCA 2009 in Hong Kong. With careful monitoring by the Finance Committee, the financial situation of the College in 2007 continued to remain sound and healthy. There is now a deposit of equivalent of over HK$17.5 m in our accounts. As in the past years, our investment strategy remains conservative. Staying away from high-risk investments, our funds are carefully placed, with over HK$5.2 m in time deposits, and HK$0.7 m in guaranteed funds. However, in the low interest rate era, our income from these deposits cannot be over-estimated.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to Dr. Andrew K. K. Ip, our President, Dr. Raymond C. H. Lo, our Vice President (General Affairs), Dr. Chan Hung Chiu, our Vice President (Education & Examinations), Dr. Edmund W. W. Lam, our Honorary Secretary, Dr. Mary B. L. The Public Education Committee organized a variety of activities through different channels. The Media Column Subgroup continued to publish articles every Friday in the local newspaper "Hong Kong Economic Journal (信報)". Besides, College was invited by Ming Pao (明報) and We Care Magazine (關心) to publish articles to educate the public on Family Medicine. Council members and members of the Media Column Subgroup were delegated to write articles to release fortnightly in the 家有醫生 column of Ming Pao, and 1 to 2 monthly in We Care Magazine. Following the success of the book 家庭醫學手冊 - 伴我同行 in July 2007, the second book 家庭醫學手冊之二 - 家庭醫生 collected published articles in Hong Kong Economic Journal, Ming Pao and We Care Magazine was launched to the public first in the Hong Kong Book Fair and then to bookstores around town in late July 2008. With such enduring commitment, the Committee had invited many new colleagues to join these exciting and highly worthwhile activities. The mission of public education would not be successful without all their active participations and contributions.

Public education events were listed at the end of this report. I would like to thank all those who had offered their assistance in the past year and our excellent administrative support from the secretaries, Ms Vicky Chan, Miss Carmen Cheng, Miss Koi Chan and Miss Charlotte Sham.

The Quality Assurance and Accreditation Committee aims to promote doctors' participation in effective and efficient quality assurance programs and to demonstrate their accountability to the community by documenting their participation in our Quality Assurance (QA) program. Our QA Programme is open to all registered doctors in Hong Kong and is reciprocally recognized by the Royal Australian College of General Practitioners (RACGP). Accreditation will be recorded throughout the years in the form of "credit points" according to our regulations for award of Certificate of Quality Assurance.

All Hong Kong Academy of Medicine (HKAM) fellows in Family Medicine are required, in addition, to observe criteria laid down by HKAM. The HKAM has revised their Principles and Guidelines on Continuing Medical Education (CME) and Continuous Professional Development (CPD). Starting from 1 January 2008, no more than 75 points of the minimum CME/CPD requirement of 90 points can be awarded for passive participation in a 3-year cycle.

For doctors taking the Medical Council Continuing Medical Education Programme for practising doctors who are not taking CME programme for specialists (MCHK CME) Programme, documentation of their participation in the MCHK CME Programme will be managed by HKAM, the administrator appointed by Medical Council of Hong Kong (MCHK) from 2008 while we will continue the documentation for their HKCFP QA Programme.

The list of the fellows, members who have obtained the CME certificate 2007 were listed below. I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the committee members for their contribution and unfailing support.

Nine submissions were received for the Annual Research Award 2007 and the selection panel consisted of two internal assessors and one external assessor. The winning project was "Barriers for Primary Care Physicians in Providing Palliative Care Service in Hong Kong" by Dr. Hong Tin Chak, Dr. Lam Tai Pong and Dr. David V K Chao.

The 2008 HKCFP Research Fellowship have received four applications this year, all of good quality. The selection panel has selected two winners. The first winner is Dr. Ching Kam Wing. His research project is "Family Physicians' Current Use of and Attitude to Clinical Guidelines in Hong Kong's Primary Care Setting: Focus Group Study and Questionnaire Survey". The second winner is Dr. Chu Tsun Kit. His research project is "A Pilot Study on Acceptability of Human Papillomavirus (HPV) Vaccine among Women of Reproductive Ages in Hong Kong".

To obtain an up to date picture of the public's perception of primary healthcare and their expectations for related services in response to the Health and Medical Development Advisory Committee of the Health, Food and Welfare Bureau's consultative document "Building a Healthy Tomorrow" in which the concept of family medicine and family doctors were placed in a central position in an initiative to revamp the primary healthcare services of Hong Kong, the research committee has commissioned in early 2006 the Social Sciences Research Centre (SSRC) of the University of Hong Kong to conduct a telephone survey to study the community's expectations of primary healthcare services. The study was published this year in the Hong Kong Practitioner and presented in the Forum on Healthcare Reform Consultation Document.

Finally, I wish to thank all who have provided assistance to the Reserach Committee and look forward to closer collaborations in the future.

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

The year of 2007-2008 brought us both hope and disappointment.

The good news is that the MMS system has been delivered and in working condition, and along with the support of our secretaries, the daily computer needs were met. However, the new College website has been hindered by various factors, despite numerous negotiations and meetings, progress had been unsatisfactory. A testing web site went on trial but failed the agreed standard. By mid year, the painful decision was made to discharge the contracting party. A new contractor was sought.

The Committee welcomed several new members with more fluency in computer technology. Dr. Simon So took up the task of vice-chairmanship and overlooked the new web progress.

While the web site progress has been unsatisfactory, the Committee will continue to prepare for any new demand in functions related to web and computer, as to serve the College and its members. Possible areas are in the Board of Educational activities for the members and the Public Education for the community.

I apologized for failing to have the Web page completed by the deadline. We have plenty of lessons to learn from these encounters, as business contract and negotiation are not our expertise. I will also call upon any members and fellows with Computer know-how to join us. To serve the members is the only reward.

I would like to thank all the Committee members esp. Drs. Steven Ho and Simon So, for the past and cooperative effort. I would also like to thank our secretarial support, Ms. Erica So and Crystal Yung in their energy and effort in rescuing the MMS and Web matters, on top of their multiple daily tasks.

Next year, our College will host the 2009 WONCA Asia-Pacific Regional Conference. Last time when we held WONCA conference was in 1995. At that time, there were over two thousand delegates.

The theme of the conference is "Building Bridges". We have chosen four main topics to elaborate on this theme, namely primary care models, infectious disease, mental health and the care of the elderly. Renowned speakers from local and overseas are invited to review with us the cutting edge medical developments. Local and overseas researchers will also present their works. In addition, there will be practical workshops for participants to update their hands-on clinical skills.

We are honor to have the Honorable Mr. Donald Tsang as our VIP Guest at the welcome reception. We have also invited Dr. the Hon York Chow, the Secretary for Food and Health Bureau, and Dr. David Ho, the renowned scientist, to be our keynote speakers.

The Host Organizing Committee would like to express our sincere thanks to International Advisors for their recommendation for the scientific committee and promotion of the conference.

On behalf of the board

Chairman
HONG KONG, 11 September 2008

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF THE HONG KONG COLLEGE OF FAMILY PHYSICIANS
(Incorporated in Hong Kong with limited liability)

I have audited the financial statements of The Hong Kong College Of Family Physicians set out on pages 4 to 11, which comprise the balance sheet as at 31 March 2008, and the income statement, statement of changes in equity and cash flow statement for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory notes.

Council's responsibility for the financial statements

The Council is responsible for the preparation and the true and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants and Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. This responsibility includes designing, implementing and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and the true and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, selecting and applying appropriate accounting policies; and making accounting estimates that are reasonable in the circumstances.

Auditor's responsibility

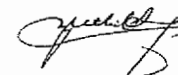

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit and to report my opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with Section 141 of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for no other purpose. I do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. I conducted my audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that I comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance as to whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and true and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the Council, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion.

Opinion

In my opinion, the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at 31 March 2008 and of its results and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with the Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards and have been properly prepared in accordance with the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1 LEGAL STATUS

The College is a company limited by guarantee and not having a share capital. The liability of each of its members, in the event of its being wound up while he is a member, or within one year after he ceased to be a member for payment of the debts and liabilities of the College contracted before he ceases to be a member, and costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, is limited to an amount not exceeding HK$10.

2 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses.

The cost of an asset comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use. Expenditure incurred after the assets have been put into operation, such as repairs and maintenance costs, is normally charged to the income statement in the period in which it is incurred. In situations where it can be clearly demonstrated that the expenditure has resulted in an increase in the future economic benefits expected to be obtained from the use of the asset, the expenditure is capitalised as an additional cost of the asset.

The gain or loss on disposal or retirement of an asset recognised in the income statement is the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the relevant asset.

Depreciation is calculated on the straight line method at the following rates to write off the costs of the assets over their estimated useful lives.

Furniture, fixtures and equipment	15% p.a.

(b) Related company

A related company is a company in which one or more of the directors of the company have a beneficial interest or is in a position to exercise significant influence over the company.

(c) Revenue recognition

Entrance fees from members are recognised in the financial year of receipt.

Annual subscription fee is recognised on a time proportion basis.

Interest income is recognised on the time proportion basis taking into account the principal outstanding and the effective rate of interest applicable.

(d) Foreign currencies

Transaction in foreign currencies are translated at exchange rates ruling at the transaction dates. Monetary assets and liabilities in foreign currencies at the year end are translated at rates of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date. All exchange differences are dealt with in the income statement.

(e) Taxation

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from net profit as reported in the income statement because it excludes items of income and expense that are taxable or deductible in other years, and it further excludes income statement items that are never taxable and deductible. Deferred tax is the tax expected to be payable or recoverable on differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit, and is accounted for using the balance sheet liability method. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences, and deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from goodwill (or negative goodwill) or from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of other assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the tax profit nor the accounting profit.

Deferred tax is calculated at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the liability is settled or the asset realised. Deferred tax is charged or credited in the income statement, except when it relates to item charged or credited directly to equity, in which case the deferred tax is also dealt with in equity.

3 TAXATION

No provision for Hong Kong profits tax has been made in the financial statements as there is no estimated assessable profits for the year. (2007:17.5%)

	2007

Chairman
HONG KONG, 12 September 2008

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT
TO THE MEMBERS OF HKCFP EDUCATION LIMITED
(Limited by guarantee)
(Incorporated in Hong Kong with limited liability)

I have audited the financial statements of HKCFP Education Limited (Limited by guarantee) set out on pages 4 to 10, which comprise the balance sheet as at 31 March 2008, and the income statement and cash flow statement for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory notes.

Directors' responsibility for the financial statements

The directors are responsible for the preparation and the true and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants and Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. This responsibility includes designing, implementing and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and the true and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error; selecting and applying appropriate accounting policies; and making accounting estimates that are reasonable in the circumstances.

Auditor's responsibility

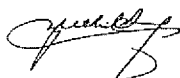

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit and to report my opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with Section 141 of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for no other purpose. I do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. I conducted my audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that I comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance as to whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and true and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion.

Opinion

In my opinion, the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at 31 March 2008 and of its results and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with the Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards and have been properly prepared in accordance with the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. LEGAL STATUS

The company is limited by guarantee and without a share capital. The liability of each of its membership in the event of its being wound up while he is a member, or within one year after he ceased to be a member for the payment of the debts and liabilities of the company contracted before he ceases to be a member and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up the company, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, is limited to an amount not exceeding HK$10.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Subsidiaries

A subsidiary is a company in which the company, directly or indirectly, controls the composition of the board of directors, controls more than half the voting power or holds more than half of the issued share capital. The company's interest in subsidiaries are stated at cost less provision for permanent diminution in value. Results of the subsidiaries are accounted for by the company on the basis of dividends received and receivable.

(b) Related companies

A related company is a company in which one or more of the directors has a beneficial interest or is in a position to exercise significant influence over the company.

(c) Revenue recognition

Revenue arising from activities is recognised when the activities are completed.

Management fee received is recognised when management services are rendered.

Interest income is recognised on the time proportion basis taking into account the principal outstanding and the effective rate of interest applicable.

(d) Taxation

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from net profit as reported in the income statement because it excludes items of income and expense that are taxable or deductible in other years, and it further excludes income statement items that are never taxable and deductible.

Deferred tax is the tax expected to be payable or recoverable on differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit, and is accounted for using the balance sheet liability method. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences, and deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from goodwill (or negative goodwill) or from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of other assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the tax profit nor the accounting profit.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences arising on investments in subsidiaries, except where the company is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

The carrying amount of any deferred tax asset is reviewed at each balance sheet date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax is calculated at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the liability is settled or the asset realised. Deferred tax is charged or credited in the income statement, except when it relates to items charged or credited directly to equity, in which case the deferred tax is also dealt with in equity.

3. TAXATION

No provision for Hong Kong profits tax has been made in the financial statements as there is no estimated assessable profits for the year. (2007:Nil).

The company had no significant unprovided deferred taxation at 31 March 2008 and 2007 and for the years then ended.

At the balance sheet date, the company has unused tax losses of HK$1,351,668 (2007:HK$375,893) available for offset against future profits. No deferred tax assets has been recognised due to the unpredictability of future profit streams. The losses may be carried forward indefinitely.

4. DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION

None of the directors received any remuneration for their services rendered to the company during the year. (2007:Nil)

On behalf of the Board

Chairman
HONG KONG, 9 September 2008

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT
TO THE MEMBERS OF HKCFP FOUNDATION FUND
(Limited by guarantee)
(Incorporated in Hong Kong with limited liability)

I have audited the financial statements of HKCFP Foundation Fund (Limited by guarantee) set out on pages 4 to 9, which comprise the balance sheet as at 31 March 2008, and the income statement, statement of changes in equity and cash flow statement for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory notes.

Executive board's responsibility for the financial statements

The executive board is responsible for the preparation and the true and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants and Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. This responsibility includes designing, implementing and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and the true and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error; selecting and applying appropriate accounting policies; and making accounting estimates that are reasonable in the circumstances.

Auditor's responsibility

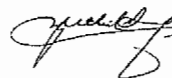

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit and to report my opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with Section 141 of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for no other purpose. I do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. I conducted my audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that I comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance as to whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and true and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the executive board, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion.

Opinion

In my opinion, the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at 31 March 2008 and of its results and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with the Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards and have been properly prepared in accordance with the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

Directors' responsibility for the financial statements

The directors are responsible for the preparation and the true and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants and Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. This responsibility includes designing, implementing and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and the true and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error; selecting and applying appropriate accounting policies; and making accounting estimates that are reasonable in the circumstances.

Auditor's responsibility

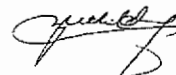

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit and to report my opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with Section 141 of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for no other purpose. I do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. I conducted my audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that I comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance as to whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and true and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion.

Opinion

In my opinion, the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at 31 March 2008 and of its results and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with the Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards and have been properly prepared in accordance with the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses.

The cost of an asset comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use. Expenditure incurred after the assets have been put into operation, such as repairs and maintenance costs, is normally charged to the income statement in the period in which it is incurred. In situations where it can be clearly demonstrated that the expenditure has resulted in an increase in the future economic benefits expected to be obtained from the use of the asset, the expenditure is capitalised as an additional cost of the asset.

The gain or loss on disposal or retirement of an asset recognised in the income statement is the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the relevant asset.

Depreciation is calculated on the straight line basis at the following rates to write off the costs of the assets over their estimated useful lives :

Furniture, fixture and equipment	15% p.a.
Leasehold improvement	15% p.a.

(b) Turnover

Turnover represents course fees received.

(c) Revenue recognition

Revenue arising from professional courses is recognised when received.

Interest income is recognised on the time proportion basis taking into account the principal outstanding and the effective rate of interest applicable.

(d) Taxation

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from net profit as reported in the income statement because it excludes items of income and expense that are taxable or deductible in other years, and it further excludes income statement items that are never taxable and deductible.

Deferred tax is the tax expected to be payable or recoverable on differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit, and is accounted for using the balance sheet liability method. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences, and deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from goodwill (or negative goodwill) or from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of other assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the tax profit nor the accounting profit.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each balance sheet date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax is calculated at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the liability is settled or the asset realised. Deferred tax is charged or credited in the income statement, except when it relates to items charged or credited directly to equity, in which case the deferred tax is also dealt with in equity.

2. TAXATION

No provision for Hong Kong profits tax has been made in the financial statements as there is no estimated assessable profits for the year. (2007:Nil)

The taxation charges is made up as follows:

	HK$	2007 HK$
Deferred tax
Current year	9,447	15,839
	=====	=====

The taxation on the company's loss before taxation differs from the theoretical amount that would arise using the taxation rate in Hong Kong for the company as follows:

Loss before taxation	(709,474)	(20,522)
	=====	=====
Tax at the income tax rate of 17.5%	(124,158)	(3,591)
Tax effect of non-deductible expenses	11,200	10,159
Tax effect of non-chargeable income	-	(3,043)
