Rules for video recording

The candidate can arrange separated 2-hour sessions (included at least 6 cases in each session) during the examination period

Only net consultation time including giving summary at beginning, answering questions at the end, and completion of consultation note will be counted. (Waiting time between 2 patients will be excluded)

Candidate should inform College if not able to have minimum required cases consented for the examination in the examination period with sound reason. The candidate may be subject to disqualification if fail to do so.

The consent forms for refused cases are required to be submitted with the examination documents.

If the patient has signed the consent form initially but refuses during consultation, candidate should cover the camera and mute the sound recording or bring the video recorder out of the consultation room without actually stopping the machine. The case will not be counted.

Rules for video recording

Time for case note typing is included in the net time of video recording, e.g. Note typing before patient coming into consultation room, keep typing while patient going out for surgery test, or typing after patient left.

Candidate should consider to record consultations again with better time management within the assigned examination period. (For each 2-hour session, the 6th case should be started within 120 minutes of net time)

If the overtime issue was spotted by the College Secretariat when candidate submitted the videos, the exam will be processed. However, the minutes exceeding overall net time would be subtracted.

(For example, if the 6th case of session one is started at 125 minutes (5 minutes overtime), 5 minutes would be subtracted from the last selected exam case. That means, if the last selected exam case is lasting for 23 minutes, only first 18 minutes (23 minutes - 5 minutes) video would be played for reviewed.)

Rules for video recording

Candidate is required to print and display the completed consultation note clearly in front of the camera

The print-out time of the consultation note should match the consultation time of each case.

Candidate can be subject to zero mark in 'record keeping' if fail to do so; or the examiners are suspicious the note is edited after the consultation time.

Rules for video recording

The candidate is responsible to copy the recorded cases to an encrypted USB flash disk / Memory card / external hard disk for submission (Encryption software “VeraCrypt” and the user guide will be included in the examination package). The filename should be set as the candidate number and the password should be set as the “security code” on the signboard.

The candidate will be responsible for the sound and visual quality of the recorded cases. If the quality of recording affects the assessment process, the Specialty Board has the right to reject assessing the video and disqualify the candidate.

The candidate must use the format listed below to record and save the videos. Other consultation recording formats apart from the formats mentioned will not be marked.

Approved video file formats including WMV; MPG; MP4; XVID; DVD; MOV; M2TS; MTS (subject to review before the exam)
